Building Skills to Conduct Embedded Pragmatic Clinical Trials among People Living with Dementia and their Care Partners

Wednesday, April 7, 2021

Module 1: Health Care Systems and Setting – 1:30 – 4:00 pm ET

- Welcome
  - Training Core Leaders: Christopher Callahan, MD and Alexia Torke, MD

- Plenary Session: ePCTs in HCS: Building Partnerships
  - Moderator: Eric Larson, MD
  - Panelists: Jeff Williamson, MD, David Reuben, MD and Leah Hanson, PhD

- Workshop: Solving Challenges Related to Conducting an ePCT in a HCS

- Meet the Professor – IMPACT Faculty

Thursday, April 8, 2021

Module 2: Implementation – 10 am – 12:30 pm ET

- Plenary Session: Lessons Learned: Implementation Challenges Across Different Settings
  - Moderator: Nancy Hodgson, PhD; Panel Session:
  - Implementation Challenges in Acute and Long Term Care Context: Marie Boltz, PhD
  - Implementation Challenges in Primary Care: Richard Fortinsky, PhD
  - Implementation Challenges in Community-based Programs: Joseph Gaugler, PhD
  - General Considerations in Implementation: Laura Gitlin, PhD

- Workshop: Solving Implementation Challenges

- Peer Networking Session – IMPACT Faculty and Participants

Module 3: Design and Statistics – 1:30 – 4:30 pm ET

- Plenary Session: Four Essential Statistical Considerations for Designing Pragmatic Trials in Dementia
  - Moderator: Monica Taljaard, PhD; Panelists: Tom Travison, PhD and Fan Li, PhD

- Workshop: Developing a Specific Aims Statement Page

- Closing Plenary: Understanding the NIA Funding Support Pipeline for ePCTs among PLWD: Moving from Career Development to Independent Researcher to Interdependent Team
  - Presenter: Marcel Salive, MD

- Q&A Session with NIA Program Officials
  - Moderator: Christopher Callahan, MD
  - NIA Officials: Partha Bhattacharyya, PhD, Lisa Onken, PhD and Marcel Salive, MD

---

April 7-8, 2021 Training Workshop – 65 Participants across 46 institutions

January 26-27, 2022 Training Workshop – Applications expected to be open September 2021