

ePCTs and Health Systems' Ethical Obligations

Thursday, May 21, 2026

12:00 – 1:00 pm ET

Stephanie Morain, PhD, MPH

Associate Professor of Health Policy & Management,
Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health,
Dracopoulos Rising Professor of Bioethics,
Berman Institute of Bioethics

Dr. Morain conducts empirical and normative research on ethical and policy issues in clinical research and public health. A particular focus of her research is on ethical and practical issues presented by embedding research into ongoing clinical care. As part of this work, she serves as co-chair of the Ethics and Regulatory Core for the NIH Pragmatic Trials Collaboratory and is a member of the IMPACT Collaboratory's Ethics and Regulation Core Executive Committee. Additional research areas include women's and reproductive health, including the ethical inclusion of pregnant and lactating women in clinical trials. Dr. Morain received her PhD in health policy from Harvard and completed postdoctoral training at the Berman Institute of Bioethics at Johns Hopkins.
